Consumer Notes:

Maybe ... just MAYBE Anime DVD is coming into its own. This month the number of new releases almost equals the previous total amount of product available, and includes the much delayed Ghost in the Shell disc (finally!!). Also in the list this month are a few big titles, specifically, things like Poltergeist Report (which many fans have been waiting for) and the second Tenchi Muyo Movie (which many other fans have been screaming for). Finally, if you're looking for something a little different you can try Hello Kitty (the cute toys from Sanrio have been everywhere for years), or Ralph Bakshi's American Pop (seeing Petey belting out Night Moves has always been worth the price of admission for me). Don't forget about the second subtitled Giant Robo or the last volume of Blackjack, or the new Shirow title, Landlocke, either! Much stuff ... and more next month!

JEFF'S PICK(S) OF THE MONTH

While I personally think that Giant Robo is one of the coolest things out there (particularly in its new subtitled form), I'd go with Poltergeist Report since this is obviously going to be the one that's going to sell tons. I haven't seen the new Shirow yet, so I can't really comment, but I've heard it's really good. There are actually a number of things out this month which warrant special attention like the new Tenchi movie ... this is a VERY strong month!
